WHAT'S FOR EATS

ENERGY-LEVEL DINNER PICKER

Choose dinner for the energy you have tonight.

LOW ENERGY - 5 TO 10 MINUTES

[ ] Rotisserie chicken + bagged salad + rolls
[ ] Scrambled eggs, toast, and fruit
[ ] Tomato soup + grilled cheese
[ ] Microwave rice + canned beans + salsa
[ ] Snack plate: cheese, crackers, fruit, vegetables

MEDIUM ENERGY - 15 TO 25 MINUTES

[ ] Sheet-pan sausage + potatoes + frozen vegetables
[ ] Pasta with jarred sauce + spinach
[ ] Quesadillas with beans, cheese, and corn
[ ] Chicken rice bowls with easy toppings
[ ] Loaded baked potatoes with beans or leftover meat

MORE ENERGY - 30 TO 45 MINUTES

[ ] Make-ahead baked ziti
[ ] Chicken and vegetable soup
[ ] Stuffed peppers or zucchini boats
[ ] Homemade pizza with favorite toppings
[ ] Roast chicken thighs with sweet potatoes

THE BACKUP PLAN

Pick one main + one easy side. Frozen vegetables, canned beans, microwave rice, pre-cut produce, and store-bought cooked proteins count as smart shortcuts.
Keep food safety in mind: refrigerate perishables promptly and cook meat to a safe temperature.

MY DINNER PICK: _____

SIDE / SHORTCUT: _____

WHAT TO THAW OR PREP FOR TOMORROW: _____

Make tomorrow's dinner even easier.

Your free resource is yours to keep. If you'd like more help, these optional tools make real-life meal planning easier.

DINNER PLANNING MADE SIMPLE

The 5:47 P.M. Rescue Kit

Find low-effort dinners based on how much energy you have, plus useful planning tools for busy evenings.

EXPLORE THE RESCUE KIT

SHOP SMARTER FOR FAMILY MEALS

The Cheap Dinner Vault

Compare low-cost dinner ideas and practical meal-budget approaches to get more from your groceries.

EXPLORE BUDGET DINNERS

Both resources are optional. Your free printable does not require a purchase.

WHAT'S FOR EATS / OPTIONAL DINNER HELP

Love this free resource?

Here's how to make weeknight dinners easier.

Your free guide is yours to keep - no purchase is required.
If you'd like more structured dinner help, explore these optional tools.

THE 5:47 P.M. RESCUE KIT

A practical dinner-planning shortcut for busy evenings.
Plan simple meals without starting from scratch.

EXPLORE THE RESCUE KIT

Tap the button to view details before purchasing.

THE CHEAP DINNER VAULT

Browse budget-minded dinner tools and meal-planning ideas.
Built for stretching the grocery budget further.

SEE THE CHEAP DINNER VAULT

Tap the button to view details before purchasing.

Free guide first. Paid extras are always optional.

These links may lead to products for sale on our website or partner checkout.